Turn study into skill

PRACTICE LABORATORY

Submit and present the Food and Beverage Service Fundamentals capstone evidence.

Keep your work simple, local, and real. A basic note, recording, checklist, screenshot, calculation, or plan is valid practice.

EVIDENCE CHECKLIST

- ☐ I named the main idea.
- ☐ I noted one example.
- ☐ I tried one small action.
- ☐ I saved practical demonstration.

SELF-CHECK · BEFORE YOU FINISH

1. Can I explain this week's idea in my own words?
2. What example from Liberia, my community, or a regional service could I connect to it?
3. What is one next action I can test or improve?

REFLECT AND CONNECT

In 3–5 sentences, explain how this week's concept could improve a real organisation, community service, workplace, or learner project. Identify one assumption, one risk, and one action you would test next.

Vocabulary + notebook

Use this final page as a learning checkpoint. Clear terms and brief notes make independent study easier to continue.

SMALL SELF-STUDY GLOSSARY

self-directed study (self-study) means you manage your own learning plan. learning evidence (evidence) is the proof you save. A learning source (source) is credited to its original provider.

Glossary reference list evidence – learning evidence: A saved note, plan, calculation, recording, checklist, or other item that shows what you can do.

self-study – self-directed study: A learner plans, studies, practises, and checks understanding without waiting for a live class.

source – learning source: An external reading or video credited to its original provider.

FINISH WELL

Choose a time for your next study session. Small regular sessions are more useful than waiting for a perfect long study day.

SHARE SAFELY

Discuss an idea with a trusted peer, mentor, or colleague. Keep your own notes and do not share sensitive personal or workplace data.
