

Destination Marketing and Community-Based Tourism

TUR-004 · Week 2 of 10 · Tourism and Destination Management

Study independently · keep a notebook · save your evidence

THIS WEEK'S OUTCOME

Create a respectful destination brand direction.

STUDY RHYTHM

6 hours

Short sessions work best: Read · Watch · Make · Reflect.

START HERE · IN PLAIN LANGUAGE

In plain language, this lesson helps you work on create a respectful destination brand direction.. Treat tourism systems and local context as a skill you can build in small steps: study one idea, compare it with a real Liberian or regional example, and save a short piece of evidence of what you understood.

01

READ

Find the main idea.

02

WATCH

Notice a method.

03

MAKE

Try it locally.

04

REFLECT

Check what changed.

Your learning path

READ FOR THE IDEA

Use it this week: Watch with the Destination Marketing and Community-Based Tourism learning outcome in mind; take notes on an idea to test locally.

Turn study into skill

PRACTICE LABORATORY

Complete a guided tourism systems and local context activity using a Liberian or regional case study.

Keep your work simple, local, and real. A basic note, recording, checklist, screenshot, calculation, or plan is valid practice.

EVIDENCE CHECKLIST

- ☐ I named the main idea.
- ☐ I noted one example.
- ☐ I tried one small action.
- ☐ I saved brand and community proposal.

SELF-CHECK · BEFORE YOU FINISH

1. Can I explain this week's idea in my own words?
2. What example from Liberia, my community, or a regional service could I connect to it?
3. What is one next action I can test or improve?

REFLECT AND CONNECT

In 3–5 sentences, explain how this week's concept could improve a real organisation, community service, workplace, or learner project. Identify one assumption, one risk, and one action you would test next.

FINISH WELL

Choose a time for your next study session. Small regular sessions are more useful than waiting for a perfect long study day.

SHARE SAFELY

Discuss an idea with a trusted peer, mentor, or colleague. Keep your own notes and do not share sensitive personal or workplace data.

GentsAcademy created this original self-study guide and the learning image representing young Liberian learners. External readings and videos remain owned by their providers. Their title, provider, kind, licence/access note, and official URL are shown above for transparent, responsible use.
