

Destination Marketing and Community-Based Tourism

TUR-004 · Week 4 of 10 · Tourism and Destination Management

Study independently · keep a notebook · save your evidence

THIS WEEK'S OUTCOME

Present a practical marketing and partnership plan.

STUDY RHYTHM

6 hours

Short sessions work best: Read · Watch · Make · Reflect.

START HERE · IN PLAIN LANGUAGE

In plain language, this lesson helps you work on present a practical marketing and partnership plan.. Treat visitor experience and communication as a skill you can build in small steps: study one idea, compare it with a real Liberian or regional example, and save a short piece of evidence of what you understood.

01

READ

Find the main idea.

02

WATCH

Notice a method.

03

MAKE

Try it locally.

04

REFLECT

Check what changed.

Your learning path

READ FOR THE IDEA

Read for the main idea: Present a practical marketing and partnership plan.

WATCH FOR THE METHOD

Watch for one method or example connected to visitor experience and communication.

MAKE EVIDENCE

Apply the idea locally and save brand and community proposal.

ESSENTIAL QUESTION

How could visitor experience and communication improve a real situation connected to Destination Marketing and Community-Based Tourism?

Write one sentence before you begin. Revisit it after you apply the activity.

Turn study into skill

PRACTICE LABORATORY

Complete a guided visitor experience and communication activity using a Liberian or regional case study.

Keep your work simple, local, and real. A basic note, recording, checklist, screenshot, calculation, or plan is valid practice.

EVIDENCE CHECKLIST

- ☐ I named the main idea.
- ☐ I noted one example.
- ☐ I tried one small action.
- ☐ I saved brand and community proposal.

SELF-CHECK · BEFORE YOU FINISH

1. Can I explain this week's idea in my own words?
2. What example from Liberia, my community, or a regional service could I connect to it?
3. What is one next action I can test or improve?

REFLECT AND CONNECT

In 3–5 sentences, explain how this week's concept could improve a real organisation, community service, workplace, or learner project. Identify one assumption, one risk, and one action you would test next.

Vocabulary + notebook

Use this final page as a learning checkpoint. Clear terms and brief notes make independent study easier to continue.

SMALL SELF-STUDY GLOSSARY

self-directed study (self-study) means you manage your own learning plan. learning evidence (evidence) is the proof you save. A learning source (source) is credited to its original provider.

Glossary reference list evidence – learning evidence: A saved note, plan, calculation, recording, checklist, or other item that shows what you can do.

self-study – self-directed study: A learner plans, studies, practises, and checks understanding without waiting for a live class.

source – learning source: An external reading or video credited to its original provider.

MY NOTE BANK

The example I will look for this week:

FINISH WELL

Choose a time for your next study session. Small regular sessions are more useful than waiting for a perfect long study day.

SHARE SAFELY

Discuss an idea with a trusted peer, mentor, or colleague. Keep your own notes and do not share sensitive personal or workplace data.
